

Hope you are well. Tuesday A.M.

Hi Dicki & Jim,

Are you two still there? Seems a long time since you were here! I expect you are pretty busy tho. Are you enjoying the "summer" that we don't have yet? ! Ha.

We can only have one good day at a time. just enough to set us to thinking of sunbaths and picnics.

Today is cloudy and threatening showers. Guess the berries are ripening tho. and the peaches are growing. I've been helping dad thin them and we've literally "picked" bushels of them had they been full grown. Some trees are really loaded!

Would be like apricots if unthinned. We had some help from Grey diggers^{too}.

Only they just nibble them to pieces -

We went to Craig's graduation a week ago. Ken & Debbie & Conways - then we all had dinner at the Safari & came back for dessert & visiting at the house. Ken & Debbie had a good but fast trip to St Louis for Sam's wedding. Guess I've run out of space - Love, Mom.
